

Your Rocky Spine by The Great Lake Swimmers

LJ's autoharp version (In 8)

Am F Am F / Am C Dm F

Am C
I was lost in the lakes
G F
And the shapes that your body makes
Am C
That your body makes, that your body makes
G F
That your body makes

G F G F

Am C
The mountains said I could find you here
G F
They whispered the snow and the leaves in my ear
Am C
I traced my finger along your trails
G F
Your body was the map, I was lost in it

C G
Floating over your rocky spine
Dm F G
The glaciers made you, and now you're mine
C G
Floating over your rocky spine
Dm F G
The glaciers made you, and now you're mine

Am C Dm F (G) x 2

Am C
I was moving across your frozen veneer
Dm F
The sky was dark but you were clear
Am C
Could you feel my footsteps along your trails
Dm F
And would you shatter, would you shatter, would you

G F G F G

Am C
And with your fingers between my claws

Dm F G
Like purity against resolve

Am C
I could tell, then and there, that we were formed from the clay

Dm F G
And came from the rocks for the earth to display

Am C
They told me to be careful up there

Dm F G
Where the wind blows right through your hair

Am C
They told me to be careful up there

Dm F G
Where the wind rages through your hair

Am C Dm F (G)

Am C Dm F (G Em)
